This petition is directed against order dated 18.7.1991 vide which General Manager, Nizam Sugar Factory Limited placed the petitioner under suspension.

Learned counsel for the respondent says that during the pendency of the writ petition, the employer, namely, Nizam Sugar Factory Limited has been privatized and, as a result thereof, the relationship of master and servant between the management of the factory and the petitioner came to an end.

Learned counsel for the petitioner says that with the passage of time, the issue raised in the writ petition has become infructuous.

In view of the above statements, the writ petition is dismissed as infurctuous.
